Record Christmas Cards Going Fast

Another group of gift Christmas card assortments has passed through the Record's circulation department to subscribers in this area. While a strong response was expected to the free offering during the present shortage of cards through regular retail channels, still orders are pouring in, threatening to exhaust the available stock.

However, last week-end a new shipment was received and is now ready for distribution. Assortments of 20 beautiful cards, with matching envelopes, are being given with three-months' subscriptions at the regular rate of $1.00. Subscriptions may be new or renewal.

With postal officials asking early mailing to insure delivery before Christmas, and the threatened shortage of stocks, it is advisable to act quickly. A telephone call to The Daly City Record, RAndolph 3215, will bring a representative with your cards.

Post Office Asks Christmas Cooperation

Civilian Christmas mail is the next big project for Uncle Sam's postal employees to handle and they are asking the cooperation of the public. Unless the bulk of the Yuletide cards and packages are posted during November there will be no chance to get them to recipients in time for Christmas.

Faced by a tremendous manpower shortage, the post office requests that those who intend to mail Christmas parcels do so during the current month. Moreover, the war-time traffic on railways is so heavy that insurmountable pileups will occur unless early mailing is universally used.

Daly City's post office is located at 6251 Mission street. Hours are 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. week days and 8 a. m. to 1 p. m., Saturdays.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

"Educate and inform the whole mass of the people, enable them to see it is to their interest to preserve peace and order, and they will preserve them. They are the only sure reliance for preservation of our liberty."

It is well that we recall these words of Thomas Jefferson in observing American Education Week from November 7 to 13.

For scores of years the American public school system has stood as a bulwark protecting our liberty within the nation. And yet that very bulwark itself is now in danger of being seriously undermined.

The shortage of teachers has reached the point where many schools the nation over have failed to reopen after summer vacation. In others, there is serious overcrowding, classes are curtailed, and instructors lacking proper qualifications are employed.

One of the main reasons for this condition is the extremely low salaries paid—40 per cent of the teachers receive less than $1200 annually. A Federal subsidy is urged to correct this condition. Many people question if this is the answer due to the danger of dictation from Washington as to what shall be taught in our schools. However, something must be done.

American Education Week highlights not only the great work done by our public schools, but the imperative need of protecting these schools so that they in turn may carry on their part in the preservation of our liberty.

SHOP NOW FOR CHRISTMAS

Shop NOW for Christmas.

No, not for the boys overseas—you've done that already. Shop now for yourself and the people at home. Too early? Not by any means.

Christmas shopping this year will be somewhat different than anything we have experienced before. For one thing, war necessity has reduced the number of articles available to the public. That's understandable.

Also understandable is the fact that merchants lack sufficient help to adequately carry on their normal business. When the Christmas rush gets under way there will be little they can do to expand their sales staffs.

Some hardy souls may enjoy the Christmas shopping crush with its wear and tear on their toes and clothes. Other people may feel it is more satisfying to shop when the stores are fully decorated in their festive array. Still others "just can't bring themselves" to do their shopping until the very last minute.

To all these, we say—Shop now! You'll be doing yourself and the merchant a real favor. You'll have a much wider selection of goods, you'll avoid finding the stores sold out of what you want, and you will help the merchants to give you better service.

So, get yourself in a "Christmasy" mood and—Shop now!

END OF THE BEGINNING

Just a year ago, under cover of darkness in the early morning hours of November 8, troops of the United Nations swept ashore in North Africa to begin dramatically and suddenly an invasion which was to bring about the "end of the beginning"—as Winston Churchill put it.

At Casablanca, Oran, Algiers and other points there was brief fighting. But the complete surprise of the landing, its swift execution, and the half-hearted resistance of French troops quickly brought an end to the shooting.

This move, together with General Montgomery's offensive against Rommel which had begun on October 23, left the Desert Fox no alternative. What followed is now history.

While the year since last November 8 has been one of almost continuous progress for the democracies, our armies have yet to reach Hitler's inner fortress. Yet, it is well to look back momentarily and see how far we have come. Considering only the European theatre, the Axis then had a powerful grip on North Africa. Their armies were deep in the Caucasus and besieging Stalingrad. Our sea lanes were being ravished by German U-boats. A further threat to the South Atlantic lay in the danger of German control of strategic French Dakar. The picture was not bright.

Now the Axis is out of Africa, and Italy is out of the Axis. The Nazis are being pushed up the Italian boot; in Russia no longer do they stand in the Caucasus or before Stalingrad—now they fight desperately to avoid disaster; the battle of the Atlantic is being won, and our air fleets have seriously crippled much of Germany's industrial capacity.

So, in taking stock of the past 12 months we have reason for encouragement. We have passed from the "end of the beginning" to the beginning of the end. Now we must work, fight and pray for the end itself. Perhaps when another November 8 rolls around we shall have realized that end.

Central Council Plans Homecoming For Simons

The Central Council of Civic Clubs, representing district improvement associations from all parts of San Francisco, will hold "Homecoming Night" for Private Bill Simons, tomorrow evening, November 5, at the Odd Fellows building, Seventh and Market streets. Simons, for six years civic clubs editor and columnist for the San Francisco Chronicle, enlisted in the U. S. Army six months ago. He is home on furlough before joining his group in Texas.

Carroll Newburgh, president of the Central Council, made arrangements for the reception to Simons. Co-guest with Simons will be James G. Smyth, Northern California administrator for the Treasury department, with whom Simons worked before entering the armed forces, as district organization coordinator on a volunteer basis.

Simons was also editor of the Chronicle's Sunday "In the Districts" section. Probably one of the most widely known newspaper men in San Francisco, Simons is expected to be greeted by a host of friends from the city's many improvement clubs at tomorrow night's "Homecoming."

RENT YOUR VACANT HOUSE

Keeping your house vacant and losing the income while it is on today's overloaded market may not be the wise thing to do.

Extra housing is going to be at a premium for a long time yet in this area. Why not get good income during these years and keep your original investment intact?

If you will consider renting or leasing your property to a responsible family, permanently employed in Daly City, phone Moore at ELkridge 1359 or RAndolph 3215.

A LITTLE LESSON FOR MOM

WISH I KNEW WHY WE HAVE TO SPEND SO MUCH FOR FOOD!
I WAS TALKING TO ANNE NEXT DOOR THIS MORNING. SHE TOLD ME ABOUT A STUNT OF THEIRS, WHICH MAY HELP SHOW US THE ANSWER. ARE YOU GAME TO TRY IT?
SURE. I'LL TRY ANYTHING TO CUT FOOD EXPENSE.
THEN THIS EVENING GIVE JUST AS MUCH AS USUAL TO DAD, JIMMIE, ROBBIE, YOURSELF AND ME. AFTER DINNER PUT EVERYTHING YOU'D USUALLY THROW AWAY ON ONE PLATE. I'LL SHOW YOU WHAT I MEAN.
JUST LOOK, MOM! ROBBIE DIDN'T WANT ALL OF THAT SECOND CHOP, DAD ATE ONLY HALF OF HIS POTATOES, JIMMIE DIDN'T FINISH HIS SALAD. AND WE'RE ALL STUFFED.
NEXT DOOR, THEY FOUND THEY'D BEEN THROWING AWAY LOTS OF FOOD. THEY PUT THE WHOLE FAMILY ON A "CLEAN-THE-PLATE" PROGRAM, WENT IN FOR BETTER MENU PLANNING, AND CAME OUT WITH A BIG SAVING.
I SEE, DOT. WITH THE GOVERNMENT ASKING US TO CONSERVE FOOD, EACH FAMILY MUST CUT DOWN ON WASTE AND WE CAN DO IT, TOO, WITH BETTER PLANNING.

Julia says— Don't you believe it!

EVERY WEEK I'm amazed at the number of letters we receive, starting off with "Is it true that . . ." and going on to ask about something which is almost in the realm of superstition. For instance, a surprising number of people still think it's dangerous to eat cucumbers and milk together, yet they will use a sour cream dressing on cucumbers. And so many have been asking questions about canned foods, I thought perhaps you too might like to know some of the answers.

HOME CANNED

"Is it true that I should cook home-canned vegetables before using?" Definitely yes! Each home-canned vegetable should be cooked for 15 minutes immediately after opening the container, even before tasting, to insure complete safety. And if you put some away for later use, that should be cooked again before eating.

COMMERCIALLY CANNED

"Is it true that the liquid of commercially-canned peas should be thrown away?" No! If the peas are good to eat, the liquid they're packed in certainly is too! Liquid in all canned foods is simply the water in which the food is cooked; it contains valuable food elements, and should either be cooked back into the food or used in sauce or soup.

"Is it true that I must cook commercially-canned vegetables after removing them from the can?" Again, no. Commercially-canned foods are already cooked thoroughly and may be used just as they come from the tin can.

FOOD IN OPEN CANS

"Is it true that it's dangerous to leave food in an open can?" No! The Department of Agriculture says of commercially-canned foods: "Whether in the original can or in another container, the principal precautions for keeping food are—Keep it cool and keep it covered." But the opened can must be immediately put under refrigeration.

"Is it true that food which has discolored the inside of a tin can is dangerous to eat?" No. You have noticed how silverware is discolored by the sulphur in a cooked egg; the same process sometimes discolors the inside of a tin can, but it's entirely harmless.

AND FINALLY:

"Is it true that you like to answer all kinds of questions on food, Mrs. Wright?" YES! But please, oh please! Make those questions definite and detailed when you write, and address your letters to Julia Lee Wright, P. O. Box 660-SS, Oakland 4, California.

Julia Lee Wright Director
Safeway Housewives' Bureau

Newsflash to Sy: Dot was right on point!

The Government asks all of us to eat plenty of food but NOT TO WASTE any. Don't forget that "Food Fights for Freedom!"—we must use it just as intelligently as any other war material.

"Food Fights for Freedom"—this is more than mere phrase or a catchy slogan. It is a simple decl fact.

But Uncle Sam wants to emphasize that it is a fac only insofar as food is wisely selected and proper prepared. He also wants to show us that we can e

Retail grocers—both chain and independent—are cooperating in this campaign to encourage Mr

A good standard of living depends not solely o

the way it is used. During 1942, kitchen waste alon han was estimated at 15 per cent of the nation's food lecl upply. Food left on plates, together with improper can ooking methods that caused the loss of much nutriis ion value, accounted for the high percentage of waste.

fac America's food marketing system which has at-per ained great efficiency by streamlined methods of n e ass distribution through multiple-unit retail outlets lab rings to the housewife the best food available at n the lowest possible prices. But this advantage is nulified somewhat unless the housewife knows how to ent- et the most out of the food she buys. The "Food Mr ights for Freedom" campaign aims to give her that

Mrs. America's role as cook may not impress her ly a dramatic part in the war effort. Yet she can do o much toward final victory by fighting waste through lon proper use of "ammunition" for the dinner table.

THANKSGIVING DAY - 1943

Probably won't be a normal, American Thanksgiving Day holiday. But things just aren't being normal these days. Men and women in the armed forces won't be taking the day off. Theirs is, as ours must be, a steady, relentless task of driving the enemy back with whatever means are at hand.

Here at Farmers Meat Company we're trying, as hard as we can, to keep the supplies "rolling"—to keep our working civilians well-fed and healthy to win the war. Smoothing out the rough roads of food rationing is our job, and we intend to keep "firing" away until the war is won.

We carry a nice supply of poultry at all times. We believe we will have enough on order for holiday needs, but we're taking advance orders now.
